WORLD YOUTH DAY '08

st pl Ivaka Buczma

In July I was lucky enough to be part of the largest event ever held in Australia (even bigger than the Olympics) as 225, 000 pilgrims flocked from 170 nations to Australia for World Youth Day 2008. From the Days in the Eparchy in Melbourne to the actual World Youth Day Week in Sydney, we experienced a jam packed program that culminated in the final sleep-out and Mass with Pope Benedict the 16th at Randwick Racecourse. World Youth Day felt like one massive international tabir, and not only was a great chance to connect with Catholic youth from around the world, but also to meet fellow Ukrainian Catholics from Ukraine, Slovakia, Canada and America. I look forward to finding familiar faces at the next World Youth Day in Madrid, Spain in 2011!

Although not a Plast event, many Plastyny from Melbourne attended World Youth Day in July as part of a group of Ukrainian Catholics from Melbourne (and from other cities).

LESH TABIR II

KALYNA - MT HOTHAM

St pl Mariyka Snihurowych travelled the furthest to get to the tabir - east coast USA via Sydney.

Here she is pictured marking off the many runs conquered, and modelling the rather fabulous tabir t-shirt. When she gets home, she can tell her students that she went skiing in the summer holidays. In Australia.

Dates? 6th August - 9th August 2008

Weather? Absolutely perfect

Conditions? Super

Snow? 1.3m of the stuff

Crowds? What crowds

Skiing? We're in the land of Oz. We take what we can get.

Company? Excellent and entertaining, as usual

Ukrainian Banquet?

Tasty, tasty, tasty.

Komendant, st pl Adrian Magalas checking on the progress of the borsht, one of the courses consumed at the banquet.

APPLYING THE

PLASTOVI ZAKONY

TO THE CHALLENGES POSED BY CLIMATE CHANGE

Tuesday 18th November, 7.30pm @ Mango Lounge Bar, 17 Hall Street, Moonee Ponds

Call it whatever you like: a quasi-intellectual soiree; the christmas party you have when you're not having a christmas party (that, of course, is what tabir is really for); or just a chance to catch up over a quite one on a school night.

Starshiu plastyn (hardcore, but not as hardcore as Kohut) Paul Buczma, whips out another hat from his special hat cupboard to present "Applying the Plastovi Zakony of the challenges posed by climate change".

Paul, an environmental engineer, completed training with Al Gore in September 2007 and has since been raising awareness of the issues surrounding climate change with various community and business groups. Al Gore's climate change leadership program, in partnership with the Australian Conservation Foundation has trained 250 Australian volunteers as climate change presenters.

As more information about this event becomes available it will be up on the website

YUNATS'KIU HURToK "SNOWFLAKES" Go iCESKATING

On the 5th of July, we went ice skating, as part of our "winter tabir" vmlist. It was lots of fun! We caught a tram into the Docklands and walked to the ice skating rink. Although some of us had not skated before, we were soon doing laps on the ice. Afterwards Marichka bought us ice creams which we ate on the waterfront, and then on the way home, we stopped off at the Queen Victoria Market for some Spanish Donuts. Yum!
